

D3football.com 2010 All-South Region Team Beiler, Mayes highlight 2010 D3football.com All-Region team

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MINNEAPOLIS . Bridgewater wide receiver Tyler Beiler and Wesley defensive end Chris Mayes lead the D3football.com 2010 All-South Region team. Mayes was named South Region Defensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive season, while Beiler was named the South Region Offensive Player of the Year.

Wesley coach Mike Drass, whose Wolverines went 9-0 and have advanced to the national semifinals, is the D3football.com 2010 South Region Coach of the Year.

Beiler, a senior from Ronks, Pa., caught 61 passes for 1,342 yards and 16 touchdowns for the Eagles, including 12 receptions for 244 yards against playoff teams. He led Division III in all-purpose yards per game.

Mayes, a junior from Waldorf, Md., had 20 tackles for loss, 10 and a half sacks and forced two fumbles for the Wolverines during their nine-game regular season. He also broke up eight passes.

The teams, selected in balloting by South Region sports information directors and D3football.com staff, were chosen from 210 nominations by Division III member schools. A total of 76 players were chosen.
